THE RAYMOND LION "SAFETY"

Safety is one of the major classes of Lion activities. Safety is almost entirely personal. Take your highway as an example:

IT ISN'T THE CAR . . . IT'S YOU

During and immediately following the last war, considerable concern was expressed by authorities that the increasing average age of automobiles would become a major factor in a growing accident rate. But statistics now show that these fears were groundless.

In an insurance study of over 10,000 typical passenger car owners, segregated by the age of the car, it was found that drivers of three-year-old models had a higher percentage of accidents than any other group. Cars from sixteen to twenty-two years of age showed the lowest accident ratio There was no indication that the age of a car alone has any relation to the number of accidents.

In one state which investigated 63,931 cars involved in personal injury accidents, only 2.7 pec cent were found to be mechanically defective. Of the total number, 47 per cent were less than five years old and 39 per cent over five years old.

But what about the drivers?

Nearly 40 per cent were found to have been violating the rules of the road . . . speeding, cutting in, passing on curves, on the wrong side, or on hills. In addition, over 1,000 were classified as drivin while intoxicated, falling asleep at the wheel or otherwise impaired.

These statistics point to two unescapable conclusions. First, that accidents happen as often to the drivers of new models as to old. Secondly, the majority of cars involved in accidents are found to be in safe mechanical condition. It is therefore the DRIVER and not the car that is the determining factor.

Drivers from 16 to 20 years of age have nine times as many accidents as any other comparable group. This clearly indicates that early driving instructions, preferably as a part of the high school curriculum, will pay substantial dividends in lower accident rates. Indeed, cities and states where it has been tried report spectacular reduction in accident ratios at the younger ages.

And remember . . . for drivers of all ages . . . it can never be said too often . . . DRIVE CAREFULLY . . . THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN!

Are children today more enlightened than we were. Here is a sample.

A father called in his six-year-old daughter and explained to her that the gardener had found a lovely little sister for her early that morning in the cabbage patch, and asked her to write her older brother at boarding school and tell him the news. Curiosity overtook the old man and he read the letter before the postman picked it up. It read: "Dear Jack, you owe me a buck. It's a girl."

The Second Ward Relief Society held a successful Pantry Sale last week. Mrs. Karl Gehmlich and Mrs. Harold Stevens were in charge of the table.

Quarterly Stake Conference will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Stake House. Elder Mark E. Peterson of the Council and Elder Sonne, assistant to the Council of Twelve will be in attendance from Salt Lake. Tuesday evening they will meet with the Priesthood at Leadership meeting at 7:00 and the general session at 8:15. Conference will convene at 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening.

A farewell service was held Sunday evening in the First Ward for Dorin Flexhaug, who incidentally will be the 14th missionary from the First Ward in the field. W. L. Nalder was the first speaker, followed by Bishop Hicken. Jean and Joan Holmes and Arline Taylor rendered a vocal trio after which Dorin and his mother, Mrs. Flexhaug, spoke briefly.

Wednesday afternoon a few of Mrs. G. Evans' friends honored her at a surprise birthday party. A pleasant afternoon was spent chatting followed by very tasty lunch.

During the stormy month of September Raymond readers borrowed 1,680 books from the Public Library as compared to 1,198 for the same month last year which was an Indian summer month in 1950. Thirty three new books were added for the month of September, of these 17 were nonfiction and of the 17, 12 were for the junior readers. "Children in Many Lands", the bright little new books are published by the Brittanica Publishing Co. and give the child from six to twelve a better understanding of how children live in other lands.

"Cry the Beloved Country", by Alan Paton—This new book has its setting in Africa, is the story of a Zulu parson who goes in search of his young son who has left home for the big city where corruption and crime are easy for a native boy to fall in with. Good family reading.

"Renny's Daughter", by Mazo De La Roche— Friends of the Whiteoak family have waited for the new Jalna since the day prepublishing date was set for late September. The book reached the Raymond library six days after it was published in New York and readers are enjoying this new story which is the story of Jalna in the year 1949.

Mazo DeLa Roche has sold more than a million, six hundred thousand copies of her books in America. In Europe her novels have been translated into fifteen languages. In Canada where Miss Mazo De La Roche is at home her books are read and enjoyed by thousands of readers who write to the author asking that she keep this well-known family of fiction still alive by writing more Jalna books. The Jalna books were not written in the order the reader reads them. In chronological order, they are —No. 1. "The Building of Jalna", "Mary Wakefield", "Youn Renny", "Mary Wakefield", "Young Renny" oaks of Jalna", 'Finch's Fortune", "The Master of Jalna", "Whiteoak Harvest", "Wakefield's Course", "Return to Jalna", and now "Rennys Daughter".

"Royal Red", by Jack O'Brien—For the juniors and the last book to ever come from the pen of this well known author of northern outof-doors stories. The author, Jack O'Brien, was called by death before this last story came off the presses.

"Best Cartoons of the Year 1951", edited by Lawrence Lariar—This book is a yearly published book and is kept at the library for readers to enjoy when they call into the library for a few minutes time.

A new magazine which has been added to the list for this year was "Children's Digest", with good stories —famous classics, and good comics for children of all ages. These magazines are finding their way into many of the homes as children have taken to the new subscription fast.

ROTE SPOKES

Members of the local Rotary Club and their wives met at 7:30 on Wednesday in the Legion Hall to meet District Governor Bill Bruce who has been visiting towns in Southern Alberta this past week.

The Ladies Auxiliary served a delicious chicken dinner to the assembled Rotarians and Rotary-Annes after which a sing song was enjoyed.

Myron Holmes, President of the Local Club introduced the guests and then turned the meeting over to T. Geo. Wood, Chairman of the International committee.

Throughout Rotary International all clubs observed United Nations Week and the observance by the local club was carried out by a window display in the Mercantile and the special programme

While the assemblage stood up, three uniformed Boy Scouts from the Fourth Ward trooped the colors; the Union Jack, the Stars and Stripes and the flag of the United Nations The U. N. flag was purchased by T. Geo. Wood and presented to the Club on this occasion.

Following this ceremony a Panel Discussion, with Mr. Wood acting a Moderator, took place on "What Price Peace" with each member acting as a U. N. delegate.

The highlight of the evening was the talk given by Dist. Governor Bill Bruce after which the ladies retired to the Howard Melchin home where they were entertained by Mrs. Bruce with colored films of recent trips.

In the meantime the men remained at the Legion Hall in an Assembly Meeting at which Mr. Bruce was given a resume of the past year's activities and a glimpse into the book of projects for the coming year. It came to light at this meeting that the local Rotarians are going ahead with plans to spearhead a drive to raise funds to build a new Public Library. Plans and specifications for the building are being drawn up by the Library Board along with an estimate of cost. As soon as ratified by those concerned the Rotary Club will start their drive. No definite plans will be made until the estimates are learned.

After this meeting the Rotarians joined their ladies at the Melchin home where an informal gathering enjoyed homemade chocolates and nuts, and discussed the pleasurable events of the evening.

The Whist Party held at the Legion Hall last Friday was very successful with everyone havin a very enjoyable time. High prize went to Geneva Erickson and Consolation to Jennie Allen. Miralda Brown received the Door prize.

At the next party bring your husband or another friend. If you like to play cards, come out on Friday November 2nd at 8 o'clock and have yourself a good time.

The Legion Ladies are reminded of the General Meeting to be held Monday October 29th.

Two of the ladies have worked out an idea to entertain the youngsters on Halloween and try to make a little money for Christmas Welfare Parcels. next Wednesday, the 31st.

From four to six there will be a party for youngsters eight years and younger; right down to the toddlers. It only costs 10¢ and there will be games to play and refreshments served as well as prizes for the best costume.

From six to eight there will be a Junior dance for children over eight, more games and prizes. Charge will be 15¢ with refreshments extra.

Why not insure your children a good time on Halloween; keep them off the cold streets and do your bit for local welfare work.

MR. AND MRS. L. D. KING

Geraldine Jones Weds An Airman

Marriage vows were exchanged on Tuesday, October 23rd between Geraldine, daughter of Albert Jones and the late Mrs. Rosie Jones, and Jim, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Williford Tillack of Stirling. The marriage was performed in the Alberta Temple in the presence of immediate family and friends.

A family Reception was tendered the newly-weds in Stirling on Wednesday.

The groom who is a member of the RCAF has returned to his station.

Mesdames Kate Card, Vanda Grey, Sade Kinsey and Mildred Wood were hostesses at a novel Court Whist Party recently at the S. B. Card home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lusk of Lethbridge who were leaving for Vancouver to make their home.

Before the guests could sit down to play, they had to don costumes appropriate to the name of their table which included such titles as Card's Ranch, the Curling Rink, Island of Waikaiki, Earl Carol's Theatre and a Beer Garden. Guests present to enjoy the evening of fun were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Black, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Niven, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Roberts, Dr. Tom Witbeck of Lethbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Owen King, Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Witbeck, Dick Kinsey, and of course the Guests of Honor and the hostesses and their husbands.

A very tasty lunch was served at the conclusion of the evening.

A Sunday Nite Club recently met at the Karl Salmon home for their regular get-together. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

Hi School Capers

By Renae Rasmussen

As I opened the door of the old R.H.S. Friday morning, a confused sight met my gaze There, plastered on the walls, ,set on the floor for someone to stumble over, ,and hung on the ceiling by some unexplained miraile, were hundreds of huge cardboard signs, painted in every conceivable color. Signs erected the night before by ambitious hands and vivid imaginations. Some were painted elaborately in gaudy hues, bearing the inscriptions "Vote X for Secretary," or "Vote X for president", depending upon the office and person. Altogether the school was a mess of paint and paper. Everyone was rushing around in frenzied excitement, while the topic of conversation was "Who are you voting for?" Candidates running here and there memorizing speeches and holding secret meetings with that all-important guy—the campaign manager.

During the afternoon, students decked out in silly costumes, could be seen parading throughout the building, campaigning for the man of their choice. These kids are important in the election for if they do a good job of convincing the students that their choice is the best, they may be responsible for outcome of the election.

At an Executive Meeting of the Legion held on Wednesday night, final arrangements were made for the Remembrance Day Program.

We are pleased to announce these arrangements. The annual Armistice Day Dinner will be held on Saturday November 10th starting at 7 p. m. All Veterans of Raymond and District are invited to attend this dinner. A good programm of entertainment is being arranged and veterans are asked to purchase their tickets in advance wherever possible. Our President Comrade Ray Attwood will act as host at this dinner.

The program for Sunday calls for "Fall In" of all veterans at the Legion Memorial Hall at 10:30 a.m. The parade will march to the Cenotaph at the Town Hall where Remembrance Wreaths will be placed. Following this at approximately 11:15 a.m. a Remebrance Day Memorial Service will be held at the Taylor Stake House conducted by Legion Chaplain Bishop J. Golden Snow. The public is invited to these services. All veterans are asked to parade. Medals and Berets will be worn.

On Monday November 12 a Turkey Shoot will be held at the Fair Grounds, sponsored by the Legion and under the supervision of the Raymond Gun Club. At night a Dance is scheduled at the Opera House where a good time is assured all attending.

As announced previously, the sale of poppies will get underway on the morning of November 3rd. Once again we wish to remind our readers that the profits from the sale of poppies remain right here in town to be spent entirely on local welfare projects. The sale of Remembrance wreaths this year has been good. There is still time for businesses and individuals to place your orders for these wreaths. Contact Sugar City Motors or Thompson Furniture. Place your wreath on the Cenotaph in memory of a friend or relative who paid the supreme sacrifice.

This "lake" is the artificially created storage reservoir of Calgary Power's new Spray project. The earth-fill dam, centre foreground, is 190 feet high from bedrock. It is situated in the canyon-like entrance to the Spray Valley, and is the key to the water-storage system developed for this latest hydro project. Over 1,100,000 cu. yds. of material were placed here within a matter of weeks.

The dug channel above the dam will carry off excess water during the runoff periods of late Spring and Summer, never permitting water levels to rise above the full supply level at elevation 5,580 feet.

The Sunday Night Club met at our home this week with Dr. Gordon Anderson presenting a very interesting lesson. The evening came to a close after a chat and refreshments. Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, who was visiting here, was with us once again.

RAYMOND RECORDER

A Social evening of games and visiting was enjoyed last Friday evening in honor of the retiring members of the Second Ward Junior Sunday, at the home of the Superintendant, Mrs. Wm. Jensen.

The retiring members are Mesdames Hilda Larsen, Lucy Stevens, Lucy Christensen, Mildred Wright Irene Bowden and Sauerwein. The other guests were Mesdames Katherine Brandley, Iona Piepgrass, Dora Oler Rose Melchin, Joyce Harker Nellie Duncombe, Margaret Schnieder and Geraldine Schnieder.

A delicious lunch served by the hostess concluded the pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brandley had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Gruenwald of Coaldale. Katherine is their daughter.

Friday evening four birthdays were celebrated at the Gil Evans home; that of Gil and Betty, Jack Evans and Jim McMahon.

A very enjoyable time was spent playing Rook by the Bert Powelsons, Jim McMahons, Chuck Ackroyd's, Jack Evanses, Mel Depews, Winston Shaws and Eldon Petersons, and of course the hosts. The ladies took the prizes, with Mae McMahon copping high and Lucile Evans, low.

As a delicious lunch was served earlier in the evening, the party broke up shortly after the awarding of the prizes.

During the hurried activities the teachers were caught biting their lips and mopping their brows in agitation. They found it an almost impossible task to put forth a lesson with pupils being excused from classes for campaigning then to find them barging into the room every few minutes to drive you nuts with their performance.

But this was Election No. 1! The first big event this term! So what is to be expected but this?

The last hour of the afternoon was spent in the gym, where all the candidates (and the students) were dying a slow death as the necessary speeches were made and the kids rendered an amateu performance of some suitable song to fit the occasion.

After the entertaining ordeal, the pupils dispersed to their rooms to mark their "X" by their secret choice on the ballots. They were collected and taken quickly to the Hi Times room to be counted. A few of the more ambitious fellows commenced to clear away the rubbish and once more the school began to look like its original self. During these procedures an atmosphere of strained anxiety reigned throughout.

Finally when the last ballot was counted, the fatal sentence was announced.

President, Allen Tollestrup; Vice-President, Charlene Sommerfeldt, Secretary, Shirley Johnson; Cheer-leaders, Pat Strong, Margaret Stone, Teddy Finch, Kay Salmon.

Congratulations were offered to all the fortunates and once more the students headed for home with relieved and happy minds, and the thoughts of the election dance that night.

This was the first gym dance of the year. A good time was had as they danced until early in the morning.

Thus commemorates another election. We are glad it is over but are already looking forward to the next!

Everybody seems to be money mad. How many people feel like suicide this fall. Is there anything left if we can't get this crop. What can we have without money.

THINGS MONEI CAN'T BUY

Money can't buy real friendship—friendship must be earned.

Money can't buy a clear conscience—square dealing is the price tag.

Money can't buy happiness—Happiness is a mental attitude and one may be as happy in a cottage as in a mansion.

Money can't buy sunsets, songs of wild birds, and the music of the wind in the trees—these are as free as the air we breathe.

Money can't buy inward peace—peace is the result of a constructive philosophy of life.

Money can't buy character—character is what we are when we are alone with ourselves in the dark.

At last Raymond has a band, and the makings of a good one. The leader is Grant Erickson supported by 50 enthusiastic students and the Rotarians.

You heard them last year several times and know what they can do, and now with double the membership, they have big plans. They want to make this a bang-up year.

Here's Raymond's opportunity to have a good town band. The Hi School band is the first step in that direction. It will give young Raymond musical foundation necessary for further musical expression.

Let's strive for a town band with majorettes and uniforms, in a class with Lethbridge and Barnwell. One that Alberta can be proud of.

But the band needs the support of every citizen of Raymond, so let's boost them to the limit.

Let's look to the future Raymond! Let's make our band a lasting institution and another byword for Raymond.

Due to the spectacular and rapid development of Alberta's natural resources, Calgary Power Limited has decided to organize an Industrial Development and Research Division to assist and negotiate direct with large Canadian, United States and Overseas corporations who wish to survey the opportunities for the establishment of manufacturing plants in Alberta.

Ever since Calgary Power constructed its first hydro electric plant at Seebe to supply electric power to Canada Cement Plant at Exshaw it has taken a prominent part in attracting basic and secondary industries to the Province of Alberta.

Since 1943 William Anderson, a company official, has been devoting his full time to this important work, not only as Calgary Industrial Commissioner but also on the Alberta Industrial Development Board. Mr. Anderson has been appointed Director of the new division.

It will be the company's policy not only to continue its close co-operation with the large cities but also with the many towns and rural communities throughout the province, Mr. Anderson, who is a member of the Engineering Institute of Canada, had been able to develop many important contacts in Eastern Canada, United Kingdom and in Europe.

There is a man in Raymond with rather an unusual list of birthplaces for his brothers and sisters. One of his brothers was born in Canton, China; one in Bombay, India; one in Singapore; a sister was born in Yokahoma, Japan; and one in Hankow, China. One brother and two sisters were born in the State of Iowa and the man himself, P. W. Cope, was born in Singapore.

with the INFANTRY
(QUEEN OF BATTLES)
Modern inventions have not taken away from the Infantry its all-important part in victory. Again and again, in the battles of 1939-45 and in Korea, Infantry has proved itself — "Queen of Battles". The job of the infantryman has become tougher, more complex. He must be able to handle more weapons and to meet a greater variety of situations in defence and attack.
